A: You can use: `response = requests.get("")` `html = response.text` `pdf = pdftotext.text2pdf(html, output_format='pdf')` with `open("Zanichelli.pdf", "wb")` as `pdf: pdf.write(pdf)` of this item. You will also have a chance to win the Limited Edition box set. We are so excited to have you in our studio to record your voice with us. We will capture your voice in a perfect place and provide you with a transcript of your performance. If you have used any special effects, please make sure you tell us. We will have you record your voice in a day or so, and you will have your audio files in 1-2 weeks. Voicetrix also offers the option of digital master discs. This option is perfect for an album, CD, CD/DVD combo or DVD. The recording will be of the highest quality, recorded live, with exceptional clarity. Once you have signed up, you will be sent a link to the online session. Please do not send us any audio files to us until you have completed the session. Voicetrix also has the option of creating digital packages that will include an audio file that is perfect for a perfect digital distribution. The file will include all the rights and permissions that the client requires. One of the many reasons people choose Voicetrix is the level of quality of the voice over we can offer to your project. There is no one else in the world who can beat us in terms of the level of quality we provide. We are so excited to have you in our studio
